4.6 Attendance, punctuality, and discipline influence your performance evaluation.

5. Leave and Absence

5.1 Interns are not eligible for casual or personal leave.

5.2 Only approved medical leave is permitted in case of emergencies.

5.3 Absence for more than seven consecutive working days without approval may be treated as misconduct or abandonment.

5.4 All leave must be approved by HR or your reporting manager.

6. Performance Review, Conversion, and Termination

6.1 Your performance will be reviewed regularly through daily and monthly assessments.

6.2 If you are in a free/unpaid internship and your performance, discipline, or contribution is consistently below expectations, the Company reserves the right to convert your internship into a paid internship structure. This conversion may include revised responsibilities, performance targets, or additional training requirements.

6.3 The Company may terminate the internship without notice for poor performance, misconduct, or violation of Company policies.

6.4 Performance-based appreciation or rewards may be offered at the Company's discretion.

7. Stipend and Rewards

7.1 Interns may receive a stipend or performance reward as stated in the offer letter.

7.2 The Company may revise or modify rewards with prior notice.

8. Confidentiality

8.1 You must not disclose or misuse Company information during or after the internship.

8.2 Confidentiality applies to client details, internal processes, intellectual property, strategies, and all sensitive data.

8.3 This obligation continues indefinitely beyond your internship period.

9. Intellectual Property

9.1 All work, creative output, and materials you produce during the internship belong to the Company.

9.2 You assign all related rights to the Company.

9.3 You may not use or share this content outside the Company without written approval.

10. Professional Conduct

10.1 You must maintain professionalism, discipline, and respectful behaviour.

10.2 Misconduct, harassment, or misuse of Company resources may result in termination.

10.3 You must follow all Company rules, communication policies, and workplace guidelines.

11. Social Media and Data Use

11.1 Your personal and professional data may be used for lawful business operations.

11.2 You may not post or share anything that harms the Company's reputation, reveals confidential information, or misrepresents your association.

12. Non-Compete and Non-Solicitation

For 12 months after the internship ends, you must not:

- Work with or assist a direct competitor in marketing, advertising, or social media services within India
- Approach Company clients, vendors, or employees for personal or commercial gain

13. Damage and Liability

13.1 Any loss or damage to Company property caused due to negligence may be charged to you.

13.2 The Company may deduct repair or replacement costs from pending payments.

14. Conflict of Interest

You must disclose any freelance activity or external work related to similar fields. Written approval is required before starting such engagements.

15. Internship Termination

15.1 The Company may terminate the internship without prior notice.

15.2 You may request to discontinue the internship, subject to approval.

15.3 All Company property and access credentials must be returned on exit.

16. Amendments

Any changes to these terms must be documented in writing and approved by an authorized Company representative.

17. Governing Law

This agreement is governed by Indian law. Any disputes fall under the jurisdiction of Anand, Gujarat.
